

UNITED METHODIST CHURCH THE ORDER FOR WORSHIP

February 8, 2009
9:25 a.m.

5th Sunday after the Epiphany
Liturgical Color: Green

The great Evangelist Charles Spurgeon once said, "A slumbering church compels Satan to make it his chief business to rock the cradle, to hush all noise and to drive away even a fly lest it light upon the sleepers face. His great dread is that this great church might rouse itself from her dreamy repose." Wake up! The salvation of this world depends on it.

The asterisk () designates when the congregation will please stand.*

Worshippers who find standing difficult are invited to remain seated.

Worshippers are encouraged to turn off their cell phones while they are in the sanctuary.

Bold print is read or sung by the congregation.

THE CALL TO PRAYER

Leader: The Lord be with you.

All: And also with you.

Leader: Let us pray.

All: Gracious and Amazing God, we come to your house for worship and for community. We live in an unsettled world. We live in the midst of enemies, some from within and some from other sources. Help us, as the people of God, to face unafraid those enemies that we must deal with day-in and day-out. We're challenged to live in this world, but we must also live through our faith. Help us to reach out in love, to cry out in hope, and to speak up with justice. Embolden us to live lives worthy of the name Christian. Help us to deal with our enemies with the power of faith and the force of love. Hear us now as we pray, each in our own words and our own way.

Moments of Silent Prayer

Those desiring to come to the altar for a time of intercessory prayer are welcome to come and kneel or stand.

All are invited to spend these moments in silent prayer seated at your pew.

The Pastoral Prayer

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us, and lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For thine is the kingdom and the power, and the glory, forever. Amen.

WE DEDICATE OURSELVES TO GOD

OFFERING GOD OUR GIFTS AND OURSELVES

If you are visiting this morning, you are our guest. If Grace U.M. Church is your home, remember that the biblical expectation is that you will give your tithe to your church. May we all remember that giving to God in response to His great love is the most celebrative moment of corporate worship. Today's loose coin offering is dedicated to MUFF.
